

The Luvvie

Welcome to the Luvvie, March 2007. I apologise for not having done one of these in a long, long time!

Hopefully you will all receive the Luvvie this week, and so first of all, please come and see Thoroughly Modern Musicals, on 9th and 10th March. You should all hopefully have your tickets by now, but there are some still available at the box office (01634 338338). Prices are £9 and £8 concessions.

Nibbles and Nollidge

(fortunately Jill deals with the company's numbers and not spelling!)

This will be held on Friday 23rd March at 8pm, at the Medway Cruising Club, at the Strand in Gillingham. This is a joint venture between the Three Towns and ROAR. Tables can be up to 8 people and tickets are £5 per person.

For those of you who don't know our 'Nibbles and Nollidge', 'Beer and Brains' and 'Wine and Wisdoms' are posh names for a pub quiz! Hope this clears up any questions and means we'll see some more of you there!

Please see any committee member to book a ticket or reserve a table or you may contact us through our website. You can also give them raffle prizes!

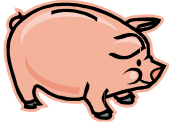

Don't forget to check out our website! Vermilion have been working hard and have now given us a message board for members to suggest ideas (you can do it anonymously if you wish) and also one for our audience to contribute their ideas.

(Piggy sits by the tea and coffee and gets fed coins to contribute to our rehearsal rooms).

Three Towns will be doing Blitz! in November 2007. Show dates will be 21st to 24th November 2007. Rehearsals for Blitz! will start in May 2007 with adult auditions being held towards the end of May, beginning of June.

We will also need children in this show, so please if you know of any children that are interested in stage performing, we will be holding auditions shortly before the summer holidays start.
