Committee Chat

Another great show!

Beauty & the Beast was a resounding success. With no audience less than 120 and the Saturday matinee sold out (301) the run of the show was a great experience for all involved, just how it should be. Final figures are not yet known but we suspect it will have cost us something BUT everyone had fun and it was a wonderful experience which, after all, is what we all do it for.

There will be a link on the website to 673 photographs taken during tech and dress rehearsal.

We hope those of you who were not involved managed to come and see it and enjoyed it.

We are meeting on Thursday 18th to have a good chat and to introduce 'Fiddler on the Roof'. Scripts will be available to have a look at.

From Thursday 25th March until the end of April we shall only be meeting on a Thursday for workshops – dancing, acting and anything else you would like if we can arrange it. These are great fun and help in raising funds towards our next production. We will charge £2.50 “ a bargain “ we hear you say! If you can offer anything towards these (from your hidden talents) please let us know.

Rehearsals will also take place for Melodrama to be performed in June at the Dickens Festival. Dates to be arranged.

Don't forget the closing date for the production team for 'Fiddler' is 24th March. We do now have at least 1 application for each position of Director, MD and Choreographer but we will need a stage manager and a production manager plus many more volunteers!

Could you all please start thinking about the next committee. We need new 'blood' to bring along new ideas.

Finally if you know anyone who may have storage space please let us know as we are accruing a lot of props and scenery but the basement at the Brook is 'bursting'.
