

The Luvvie

November 2006

The Committee are sending this edition of the Luvvie out on a high note! Our recent production of Stepping Out has been a great success! Figures so far predict a profit in the region of £1800.

Huge thanks go everyone who made the show possible, to the cast who put in so much work, and even held extra rehearsals, to our new members, who have been amazing and really got into the swing of things, Ruth and Lucy our front of house team, Ryan Jackson, Derek Jarvis and Louise Parrott our backstage team, and of course our production team.

We also had a lot of help from out side companies. Gillingham Ice Bowl, The Black Lion Leisure Centre, AMF Bowling and Diggerland who all donated prizes to us for our lucky programme draw, and Midnight Limo's (01634 409716) who ran a fantastic competition for us in the papers.

The cast of Stepping Out had their 'post-mortem' meeting on 7th November at Aburound House and then Debbie Harrold will be talking about our next production Thoroughly Modern Musicals at United Reformed Church Hall, Balmoral Road, Gillingham on Thursday 16th November so please come along.

Tap Classes will continue on Tuesday evenings with Carol and Chloe at Aburound House. They are £2 for a 2 hour session and, to use a line from Stepping Out, "if you don't come, you don't pay". They are also considering Jazz lessons too.

Congratulations to Nikki Çagan, who is expecting her first child in April 2007 and we hope her 'morning' sickness ends very soon.

The Committee have been trying to come up with a way of helping to keep you all more in touch with what is going on and up to date with things. We have www.threetownstheatrecompany.co.uk which is always up to date and the Luvvie which we use to tell you the news and advertise our fundraising events. But these alone are not always working, so we have split the membership list between the 10 Committee members by alphabetical order. Each Committee person will be responsible for keeping their members up to date with events and will be there to receive your comments and hopefully make it easier for you as a company member to put your views forward. This does not mean however that you can't talk to any other Committee member if you feel more comfortable.

The first time your Committee member contacts you they will let you know who they are and how best to contact them.

Of course the best way to keep in touch and up to date is to come along and join in, so we hope to see as many of you as possible on Thursdays at United Reformed, Balmoral Road, Gillingham from 16th November onwards.
