First of all, please accept my apologies. This will not be one of the best written Luvvies as I have a 1hr lunch break to do it in, as I need to get it out today, incase any of you can make it to the Pub Quiz at short notice. People that have been at rehearsals have no excuse, but this is for all those non-acting members, or those acting members on a break.

CONGRATULATIONS

to all that took part in Anything Goes. What a brilliant show! If you came to see it I m sure you ll agree. All through the rehearsal period we had a great atmosphere and a friendliness that continued on into show week, making the audience comment that "it looked like people were really enjoying themselves". All of our new comers proved themselves to be valuable company members, and our normal chorus members gave us performances we will find hard to forget..

Unfortunately despite being a good show, we did not sell enough tickets and have made a loss, which is why we are going to try nearly every fundraising trick in the book and more!

This Friday (7th July 2006) we are holding a Pub Quiz in the Plough and Checkers, Gillingham. Tickets are £2.50 each and tables are up to 6 people. The bar will be open so please don t bring drinks. Any profit from ticket sales, raffles etc will go to Three Towns Theatre Company. (All raffle donations gratefully accepted.)

Following on from this Lisa and Gwinny will be doing a bootfair on 23rd July, weather permitting, and will gratefully receive any donations from you to sell to help boost funds.

We then have a barn dance on 22nd September 2006 at Upchurch Village hall. Tickets are £10 for adult and £5 for children under 15.

With a Buffet! (All raffle donations gratefully accepted.)

We also have planned for Sunday 3rd September 2006 a car Treasure Hunt, followed by a barbeque at a mystery location! The cost for this will be £5 per car (and a burger for BBQ).

On behalf of the Director and Choreographer I would like to thank everyone who auditioned for Stepping Out last night, the performances were all excellent, and the decision was not an easy one. For those that do not know, the Director is Paul Smith, the Choreographer is Nikki Cagan and the cast . . . you will have to wait as their letters only went out last night.

If you missed out on auditioning, didn't get a part, or Stepping Out is „not your thing then please keep listening out as we have been asked to do an evening of song, similar to the concert type things we have done before, e.g. Broadway and Beyond, A Celebration of the Musicals and Musical Encores

Information of what we are doing and when are available through the Luvvies, in rehearsal announcements, on the board at the Brook and on the website
